Holmes's Case Notebook

: Commissioned by the GS Museum

The GS Museum was attacked by unidentified assailants. In the morning, the museum's administrators found a single letter, which read, "I have hidden treasures, please look for them." The treasures were known to be eight of the museum's most valuable pieces.

Holmes's Case Notebook

: Commissioned by the GS Museum

The eight treasures stolen from the GS Museum come from all over the world. They are a statue of Venus from Greece, a Terracotta Warrior from China, the Holy Grail from Rome, a Korean binyeo, a British tiara, a Japanese legendary sword, a golden mask of Tutankhamun from Egypt, and a gold bar from the Caribbean.
